

CCS4G SYMPOSIUM 2026

2 December 2026 | The Geological Society, London

SPONSORSHIP
AND PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

INTRODUCTION

On behalf of the Geoscience Energy Society of Great Britain (GESGB), we're delighted to showcase CCS4G Symposium 2026 – Carbon Capture and Storage (CCS) for Geoscientists, which is taking place at the Geological Society, London on Wednesday 2 December 2026.

Now in its fifth year, this one-day event will focus on the practical realities of delivering geological CO2 Storage at scale, from subsurface understanding and storage integrity through to commercial and project delivery considerations.

Designed for geoscientists, engineers, and energy professionals, the Symposium provides a space to stay informed, share insight, and engage with the developments shaping CCS right now.

SPONSORSHIP AND PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The Symposium will cover an array of talks, presentations, real life case studies and panel discussions, and is followed by our Evening Reception, the ideal environment for networking with industry influencers.
